

PRESS RELEASE NORRIS GREENHOUSE JR.

When there is no evidence that Norris Greenhouse Jr. shot anyone, and not a single bullet linking him to the crimes for which he is charged, I guess this is the route the Attorney General's Office chooses to take. These unproven, scandalous allegations are just distractions, and we know the people of Avoyelles Parish realize that these stories do not serve the cause of justice. I imagine the AG's Office hopes we will seek a venue change, but we continue to trust the people of Avoyelles to give our client a fair trial. As such, we look forward to defending Officer Greenhouse at trial, in Avoyelles Parish, and hope in the future the AG's office will focus on the actual case.

On November 3, 2015, a six year old boy, Jeremy Mardis, was killed. This should be the focus of the case, but the AG's office would rather attempt to portray Greenhouse as a womanizer in uniform. This is both false and irrelevant. We will defend Officer Greenhouse's actions that night. There is no proof at all that any bullet fired from his gun struck anyone, it's that simple. But yet again we find ourselves forced to respond to allegations that have nothing to do with the death of Jeremy Mardis.

Finally, all but one of these accusations are made by people who have been arrested by my client in the past, certainly giving them reason to dislike him. I can only speculate this information has been gathered by sending investigators to talk to Officer Greenhouse's numerous arrestees, and then compiling all scandalous allegations, regardless of its relevance to this case.

Sincerely,

George Lewis Higgins III
